

TGGS Keen Readers Summer Book Club

Step 1: Ask your teachers to register your interest. They will need an email address from you or your parents to do this.

Step 2: Read 'The Amazing Story of Adolphus Tips' by Michael Morpurgo by 8th May 2017.

*A heart-warming tale of courage and warmth, set against the backdrop of the second world war, about an abandoned village, a lifelong friendship and one very adventurous cat!
'Classic Morpurgo brilliance' – Publishing News*

Step 3: Look out for an email from Torquay Girls Grammar School in the first week in May with further information about how to log on the blog and dates for a live podcast with our year 9 book club team.

Best Wishes from
Torquay Girls Grammar School

Online Rules

Please read through these rules with participating students.

Sometimes we might edit a comment if there's part of it that doesn't meet our moderation rules but the rest of it is ok. We might edit a message because you've included some personal details by accident, or because the language or subject isn't appropriate.

1. You must be registered by your primary school

2. Don't use all capital letters

Any comments that are written only in capital letters will not pass moderation. Writing in capitals looks like you are shouting and it is also more difficult to read.

3. No sharing personal details

Personal details are things that could identify you to other people - like your surname, address, phone number, email, school name or school uniform details. You are not allowed to share this information for your own safety. However, you CAN tell people your first name, age and whether you are a boy or a girl.

4. No sharing of links

We can't allow you to mention other websites as we cannot be sure that they are suitable or safe.

5. No nasty, offensive or rude comments

Sharing your opinion is fine as long as it is said politely and fairly, but being mean and/or causing arguments is not allowed.

6. No foreign languages or secret codes

Everyone must be able to easily understand your comments. We can't allow comments that are written in code or a language which isn't English.

7. No copying

Please don't copy and paste song lyrics, scripts or any other text that you didn't write. You must not copy other people's comments either.

8. Stick to the topic

Make sure your comment is on the topic of the question at the top of the page

9. Don't go overboard on the emojis

If you want to include an emoji or two in your comment, that's fine. But don't repeat the same emoji over and over again - a maximum of 3 repeated emojis is allowed.

😊👍✓

10. Don't type lllllkkkkee thiiiiissss

It's really difficult to read and makes your comments unnecessarily long. Stick to the normal amount of letters for your words.
