Notes for guidance for Parents

Parental Responsibility

Under the Children Act 1989, the concept of parental responsibility replaces the concept of 'parental rights'. Parental responsibility can be shared between a number of people, such as:

- ♦ Both married parent of a legitimate child even if not living with the child.
- ♦ Both divorced or separated parents of a legitimate child.
- ♦ The mother of an illegitimate child.
- ♦ The father of an illegitimate child when he has acquired parental responsibility through a parental responsibility agreement or a Court Order.
- ♦ Any person appointed guardian by a Court.
- ♦ Any person who has a Residence Order in respect of the child.
- ♦ Any person who receives the child under an Emergency Protection Order.
- ♦ The Council through its Social Services Department if the child is the subject of a Care Order. Foster parents do not have parental responsibility.

Anyone who does not have parental responsibility but who is caring for a child may do what is reasonable in the circumstances for the purpose of safeguarding and promoting the child's' welfare.
